“St Georges Day at Clarendon Lodge”

Press Release re - Father and Son welcomed into Freemasonry by Clarendon Lodge

Eamond Keher , 57 and his son Aaron, 27 were welcomed into Cheshire Freemasonry on St. George's Day 23rd April 2009 by the Worshipful Master Sushil Rawal and members of Clarendon Lodge No. 1166

The Lodge then celebrated St. Georges Day. Fifty four members and guests sat down to a four course meal featuring “Roast Beef of Old England” and Yorkshire pudding.

Clarendon Lodge was consecrated in 1867 and meets at the Sale Masonic Hall, Tatton Road Sale. This friendly Lodge demonstrates the universal nature of Freemasonry by welcoming members of all races and religions, who enjoy each others company, pursuing the principles of morality, justice, good citizenship, education and charity, but perhaps most importantly having fun in each others company.

Together they raise money to support the needy, locally, nationally and those subject to international disaster. Freemasonry is acknowledged as being second only to the National Lottery in its donations to charity, the money coming from the efforts of its membership, not shaking tins and begging for donations.

Freemasonry is a multi racial, multi-cultural non-judgemental organisation committed to peace, the welfare and education of others and in these difficult times provides help and support to those in need.
